About blog
Dear teachers, I want to discuss with you about the messages of the blog. I intend to upload the next days the following message to the pupils. I need your opinion about it. Do you think that we can add some more details?
What does faith mean to me?
"Dear pupils, religion plays an important role, more or less, in our lives. Here we all would like to share ideas about our beliefs and about faith. What does faith mean for each of you personally? Have you heard any stories about faith in your local society? Can you share them with us?"

Question for the pupils Dear Toula. I find your question for the pupils good and relevant. We will have to invite our pupils as members, if they are going to answer the question here in this forum. Or do you mean the Blogspot?
